Let's Start!

Let's take a trip to the supermarket with Sally and John!

Learning Outcome

Accurately exchange information about buying things in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Do you like fruit? Why or why not?
- What is your favorite fruit? Why?

Can Do Statements

- I can ask for things at the supermarket.
- I can understand and say weights, prices and sizes.
- I can talk about likes and dislikes.

Let's Explore!

Sally and John go to the supermarket to buy groceries. Let's see what they buy!

* The items you buy at the supermarket are called "groceries".

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: Let's get something to eat. Are you hungry, John?
John: I'm not very hungry. How about fruit?
Sally: Yes! There are tasty apples at the supermarket.
John: I love apples because they're so crunchy! Let's get some apples.
Sally: Okay, I need to go grocery shopping too! Excuse me. Where are the apples?
Salesperson: The apples are over here.
John: How much are the apples?
Salesperson: The large apples? They're $4 a pound.
John: Oh, that's expensive. The apples I buy are $2 a pound, but they are the medium-sized apples.
Sally: These look good, but I don't like big apples.
John: There are oranges on sale. Pears, too. I hate pears!
Sally: I also hate pears!

Let's Practice!

Do you remember what Sally likes? What about John?

Instructions: Complete the sentences. Write the missing word. Use apples, because, also, pears, big, don't.

1. John: I like _____ because they're so crunchy!
2. Richard: I _____ like apples.
3. John: I hate _____!
4. Richard: I _____ hate pears!

Let's Practice!

Sally needs to ask for things in a supermarket.

Instructions: Choose the correct answer.

1. How does Sally ask for apples?
 - a. Where are apples?
 - b. Where are the apples?
 - c. Where the apples?
2. What does Sally ask about oranges?
 - a. Are the oranges on sale?
 - b. Are the oranges sale?
 - c. Are oranges on the sale?

Extension Activity

Read a supermarket flyer!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Go online to find a flyer (advertisement) for a grocery store or supermarket in English.
- Look at the food that is on sale.
- Write a short dialogue of 6 - 10 lines. You want to ask for the price of fruit per pound.

Learning Points

Asking for Things at the Supermarket

When you ask for things in a shop, you can say Excuse me ... to get a salesperson's attention.

Asking Where Things Are	Asking How Much Things Cost
Excuse me ... Where are the apples? Where are the oranges?	How much are the apples? How much are the pears?

The answer to a Where question is a place.

The answer to How much? is a price. It can also include a size and a weight.

Weights	Sizes
a kilogram half a kilo grams	small medium large

Examples:

- Muhammad: How much are the apples?
Dominic: The large apples are $4 a pound.
- Mateo: How much are the oranges?
Declan: They're $2.50 a kilo.
- Bentley: How much are the pears?
Jake: They are $1.25 each.

Expressing Likes and Dislikes

You can express likes and dislikes with different phrases. You can use words like because , also and too when you express likes and dislikes.

Expressing Likes	Expressing Dislikes	Examples
I like I also love	I don't like ... because I hate ... too	I don't like fruit because it is sweet. Alice: I hate apples! Ben: I hate apples too! I also love oranges!
